THERE IS NO DEATH!

I tell you they have not died,
They live and breathe with you;
They walk here at your side,
They tell you things are true.
Why dream of popped sod
When you can feel their breath,
When flow'r and soul and God
Knows there is no death!

*Death's but an open door,
We move from room to room,
There is one life, no more;
No dying and no tomb.
Why seek ye them above,
Those that ye love dear?
The All of God is Love,
The All of God is Here.*

I tell you they have not died,
Their hands clasp yours and mine;
They are but glorified,
They have become divine.
They live! they know! they see!
They shout with every breath:
"Life is eternity!
There is no death!"

GORDON JOHNSTONE.

Editor's note:

In justice to the writer we have reprinted his poem in full, and exactly as his original was written.

Maestoso (♩:86)

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It begins with a piano introduction in B-flat major, 4/4 time, marked 'Maestoso' with a tempo of 86 beats per minute. The introduction features a series of chords in the right hand and a more active bass line in the left hand, with dynamics ranging from ff to f. The vocal melody enters in the second system with a forte (f) dynamic. The lyrics are: 'I tell you they have not died, They live and breathe with you; They walk now here at your side, They tell you things are true. Why'. The piano accompaniment continues throughout, with various textures including chords and moving lines. Dynamics include ff, f, ten. (tension), and mp (mezzo-piano). The score concludes with a final piano chord.
